

I am a regular listener to KLOVE served through a local FM translator. I understand that there is a real danger that LPFM might replace this service. K-Love provides commercial free positive programming. Losing K-love in our area would snuff out yet another positive influence on our community and values.